

Romeo and Juliet

English National Ballet brings the world's greatest love story to the stage with Rudolf Nureyev's inventive and passionate choreography and Prokofiev's lovely music performed live by English National Ballet Philharmonic.

Beautiful costumes and sets transport you to Renaissance Verona, its piazza bustling with market traders, street entertainers and the feuding Capulet and Montague families.

Amidst the grandeur of the Capulet's ball, our star-crossed lovers meet, unleashing a fateful sequence of events, from the romantic balcony scene to their tragic final embrace.

Full of action, humour and drama, Rudolf Nureyev's award-winning production of Romeo & Juliet was especially created for English National Ballet in 1977 to celebrate the Queen's Silver Jubilee. The Company has since performed it worldwide to critical acclaim.
